Request for Application Reactivation

Welcome Back! We are delighted that you are reconsidering Bethune-Cookman University for your educational needs.

Applicants to Bethune-Cookman University may reactivate their application for admission up to one academic year from the original term of application. After that time students must re-apply to the university. Application reactivation does not imply re-admission. Please ensure that official transcripts of courses completed since your original application are forwarded to the Admissions Office. Your application will be reconsidered and another admission decision will be provided to you.
